

I Can't Hear You!

Is this your dog when you're out in public?

Does he respond well in the home but get a bit TOO EXCITED when faced with distractions such as bikers, joggers, other dogs or wild life?

Are you bored with classroom training and seeking real world experience for your pet?

Are you looking for something fun to do with your pet?

If you answered "Yes!"

The Social Canine, Polite Behavior in Public class is for you.

Enroll now!

Dog Parents will learn:

- Timing and handling skills to PREVENT excitement behaviors from occurring
- How to capture your dog's attention in the face of distractions.

Dogs will learn:

- Sit/stay for approaching distractions such as bikers, joggers and other dogs.
- To manage their impulses and demonstrate non-reactive behaviors in public.
- Come to call even in the face of distractions.
- AKC Canine Good Citizen Test offered at the end of class.

Classes at Shelley Lake Park in Raleigh. Your dog will have so much fun, he won't even know that he's learning!
